

Job Description

Night Risk Manager

Reports to: Senior Risk Manager

Company: FCST

Position Purpose: Provide support for company risk and margins during the night sessions.

Primary Accountabilities/Responsibilities:

- Analyzes risk of all customers.
- Makes margin calls on all customers in all business segments (futures, OTC, Forex).
- Provides assistance to brokers and customers with risk and margin issues.
- Provides real-time customer analysis.
- Approves cash movement.
- Maintains risk settings for all trade entry platforms.
- Generates risk and margin reports for internal and external use.
- Provides customer service for customers and brokers.
- Maintains prompt and regular attendance.
- This list of responsibilities may not be all-inclusive and can be expanded to include other duties or responsibilities as needed.

Job Requirements:

- College degree preferred
- At least 1 years of commodities futures experience preferred
- Excellent customer service and communication skills
- Excellent organization and multitasking skills
- Strong work ethic and emphasis on attention to details.
- Must be authorized to work in the US for any employer

Class: Full-time, Exempt

Physical requirements/Working conditions:

- Climate controlled office environment
- Minimal physical requirements other than occasional light lifting of boxed materials
- Dynamic, time-sensitive, trading floor environment